DOWNTOWN
DULUTH

Under Construction 2019

by Chris McGahee, Economic Development, City of Duluth

Fall Festival patrons have visited a downtown under construction since 2015. The 2019 edition of Duluth Fall Festival is no exception. These are some of the projects you can see during your visit:

Parking Deck/Marriott Courtyard: A new 100 room Marriott Courtyard sitting on a two story 324 space parking deck is under construction behind the Duluth Festival Center. Projected opening is March 2021.

Lennar Homes: Lennar Homes started construction of South on Main in January 2019 on 60 townhomes and 34 single family detached dwellings on what was former industrial property on Hardy Street.

Willbrooke Trail: The City of Duluth purchased a single family home in the adjoining subdivision known as Willbrooke. The city demolished the home and created an access trail and passive park called Willbrooke Trail. The innovative project creates a walkable path into downtown for these residents.

Home South Townhomes: Home South has started site work on the corner of Davenport and Main Street on 20 new townhomes.

New Restaurants and

Shops: Parsons Alley has opened two new restaurants since the 2018 Fall Festival. Local on North opened early 2019 and is located next to Good Word Brewing and Public House. Nacho Daddy opened February 2019 and is located next to The Chocolaterie. Main Street saw the opening of VomFass Oils and Vinegars next to Truck and Tap. Peace Love and Decorating next to Eye Candy Art Studio has opened its Christopher Radko Ornament Shop. 6S Brewing is under construction next to O4W Pizza. Spool School is located under Duluth Yoga next to Pure Taqueria. Main Street Mediterranean opened behind Crave Pie and The Farmhouse.

The construction won't stop there. In October 2019 Greystar will be building a 180 unit active adult 55+ complex at the corner of Hardy and Hill Street. The Duluth Branch of the Gwinnett County Library will start site work in November or December 2019. It will be located next to the Calaboose on Main Street.

So, Downtown Duluth continues to grow. However, it has managed in the process to keep the wonderful small town feeling that it has been known for since it was chartered in 1876.

What started with twin brothers developing a technology to make golf scoring fun, has turned into a global brand focused on connecting people in meaningful ways.

Today, Topgolf continues to blend technology and entertainment, golfers and non-golfers, children and adults – to create an experience that makes socializing a sport. Every Topgolf venue features dozens of high-tech, climate-controlled hitting bays for year-round comfort, a chef-inspired menu for year-round deliciousness and hundreds of Associates eager to help create the moments that matter.

Welcome to the 37th Duluth Fall Festival

It is a privilege to be the Co-Chairpersons of such a positive group of people working together to make Duluth a place where all ages want to live. The volunteers contribute solely for love of the community and they are motivated and committed to the success of the Duluth Fall Festival.

With more than 400 volunteers and 59 committees, one can truly understand the importance of the Festival to the City of Duluth and the positive impact it has made.

Duluth Fall Festival is more than just a festival. It is a way of life within a community that treasures friendships, quality growth and having fun together. We work hard too!

The last weekend in September, in downtown Duluth, there will always be a predictable event--the Duluth Fall Festival. Join us!

*Nancy Harris & Herb Hoffman
2019 Co-Chairs
Duluth Fall Festival*

About the Cover

The artwork on the cover is by Duluth resident and Duluth Fine Arts League member, Brenda Ehly. Brenda is a two-time winner of the People's Choice award in the annual Paint Duluth event. You can find her wall mural, Dream Big (featuring ants and olives), at the corner of Hill and W. Lawrenceville Streets in Downtown Duluth. Her ink rendering of the Duluth City Hall is on display on the main floor.

COME SEE GWINNETT'S LARGEST PARADE!

Join us at 10 a.m. Saturday morning to kick off the Duluth Fall Festival with the largest parade in Gwinnett County. The Parade starts on Main Street (near Coleman Middle School), continues to Highway 120, turns south on Buford Highway and ends at BB&T Bank.

Come early to get a good spot along the route. Once you are settled, get ready to celebrate the people, schools, organizations and businesses that make Duluth everyone's hometown. With 3,000+ participants, the Parade includes classic cars, award-winning marching bands and orchestras, martial arts groups, scouts, Santa Claus and much more!

Grand Marshal: Scott Slade

Duluth Fall Festival is proud to present Scott Slade of WSB TV and Radio as our 2019 Grand Marshal. Scott has been with WSB Radio since 1984 and has won numerous news, programming and advertising awards.

He hosts the Atlanta's Morning News (airing weekdays 4:30-9:00 a.m., on 95.5 FM and AM750) on WSB which is among the top-rated news-talk programs in the USA. The show's many awards include the Radio Television Digital News Association's Edward R. Murrow Award as Best Radio Newscast in the nation.

Scott is a rare two-time winner of the National Association of Broadcasters Marconi Award as Best Radio Personality in America and was recently nominated for the Radio Hall of Fame. In 2000, he initiated the WSB Radio Care-a-Thon for the AFLAC Cancer Center, raising millions of dollars to fight children's cancer.

Scott has been a commercial airplane and helicopter pilot, and among his hobbies enjoys hiking, playing jazz saxophone, and, of course, flying. He is an Atlanta native and a graduate of Georgia State University. In January 2020, Scott will celebrate his 50th Anniversary on the air, with the majority of his career at WSB. Scott is the nephew of 2019 Honorary Grand Marshal, Wallace Lail.

Honorary Grand Marshal: Wallace Lail

Honorary Grand Marshal of the 2019 Duluth Fall Festival Parade is Dr. Wallace Lail. In 1969, Wallace established his dental practice in Duluth. So, 2019 marks the 50th Anniversary of Lail Family Dentistry!

Wallace earned his B.S. at Emory University, and his D.D.S. from the University of Tennessee. After graduation, Wallace served in the U.S. Army Dental Corps. He has served on many health professional boards, including Chairman and President of the Hinman Dental Society. He has won numerous dentistry awards, and is a Fellow of the American and International College of Dentists.

Wallace has also been an active civil servant to the City of Duluth, including Chairman of Planning and Zoning, City Councilmember and Mayor Pro Tempore. He was a charter member of the Gwinnett Rotary (serving as Secretary and President) and a Board member of Citizens Bank of Gwinnett. His hobbies include hunting, fishing, relaxing at in his cabin in the North Georgia mountains and flying his restored 1938 Stearman Biplane. Wallace is married to Mary Slade Lail. The couple has three sons (Ray, Slade and Brandan) and 13 grandchildren. Slade (recently voted best dentist in Gwinnett) and other relatives practice at Lail Family Dentistry, enabling Wallace to reduce his weekly working hours. His nephew, Scott Slade of WSB, is our Grand Marshal.

A Partnership:

Duluth Fall Festival and The City of Duluth

This year's 37th Annual Duluth Fall Festival will add a new chapter in a long and impressive story about volunteerism and partnership. For 37 years the Duluth Fall Festival volunteers have worked tirelessly to raise money for projects to improve downtown Duluth. As we work to make our historic downtown a destination for both locals and visitors, it's obvious the strong and significant impact the Festival has made.

The City of Duluth has a vision to bring amenities and services that attract all generations, but with an emphasis on young professionals who will be future leaders as well as economic sustenance for downtown merchants. A city that invests in its infrastructure attracts new businesses and industries. A strong downtown is the heartbeat of a city, and its success will trickle across the city limits like pebbles thrown in a pond.

Because the mission of the Festival is to improve the downtown, the City has been able to implement unique and attractive amenities that are enjoyed by all ages. Here is a short list of some of projects that the Festival has funded:

- Duluth Festival Center Taylor Park
- Eastern Continental Divide monument
- Art projects, including a historic mosaic mural, a 9-11 Memorial, and bike racks

- Parking lots
- Parson's Alley plaza amenities, such as the boardwalk and signage
- Red Clay Music Foundry signage and School of Music facility improvements
- Landscaping on the Town Green
- Equipment for Public Works and Parks and Recreation Departments

Festival Sponsor Program

During our 37 years, the Festival has donated more than three million dollars to improve Downtown Duluth! Have you ever wondered where the money comes from? In the beginning, the proceeds were small — after all of the expenses to host the Festival, not much money was left. But, more than 20 years ago, a volunteer suggested allowing commercial, or "Sponsor" booths in addition to our traditional Arts & Crafts and Food booths. Thus, our Sponsor program was born.

Since then, levels of sponsorship were developed (from $250 to $10,000), each level having more and more perks. We now have about 165 sponsors each year, averaging a total of around $170,000 in sponsorships!

We give our heartfelt thanks and appreciation to our sponsors of every level, who support us year after year. We could not begin to do all that we do for Downtown Duluth without their support.

75th Anniversary of Joan Glancy Hospital

by Kathryn Parsons Willis

The untimely deaths of two children—Olin Burnett, the 6-year-old son of a Duluth dairy worker, and Joan Glancy, the 4-year-old daughter of a wealthy Detroit industrialist—are, in a big way, responsible for Gwinnett's first hospital.

Henry Burnett was employed at Irvindale Dairy in Duluth when his son, Olin, died unexpectedly. He turned to the dairy's owner, Dick Hull, who stepped in to help. While getting burial clothes at Parsons store, he talked with Kate Parsons and was shocked to learn that there were no medical facilities in the whole area. He asked her to get the Duluth people together the next week.

At the meeting at the schoolhouse Hull asked the people to help him start some kind of clinic. Inspired by Dick Hull, they found a little house in Downtown Duluth, owned by the school system, which agreed to let them use it. The people of Duluth, black and white alike, got together and fixed up the little house, and the clinic was opened later that year in 1941. Although the South was still segregated, Dick Hull insisted, and the Duluth people agreed, that there be equal facilities and equal treatment for all,

Hull told his father-in-law, General A.R. Glancy, head of the Pontiac division of General Motors in Detroit, what the people were trying to do. Glancy's 4-year-old daughter, Joan, had died 17 years earlier because health care was not available where they were on vacation. He sent a sizable donation to Duluth in memory of Joan. And thus was born the idea of Joan Glancy Hospital!

The clinic was an immediate success, but all soon realized that it wasn't enough. General Glancy challenged the Duluth community to buy land, clear it, and dig a well, and then he would build them a hospital.

On Sunday, July 9, 1944, Joan Glancy Memorial Hospital was dedicated. Duluth had a big celebration honoring the Glancy's and all the children who had been born in the little clinic. The first baby born there, Glancy Jones Dunn, will be a special guest in the Duluth Fall Festival parade this year. Hospital Healthcare providers will walk behind the hospital lead cars.

In the years since, there have been many changes in Duluth's healthcare. In 2006, a new hospital, GMC-Duluth, was opened, and the old Joan Glancy Hospital became a rehab and wellness center. The 75th Anniversary of Joan Glancy will be featured in the Festival Parade.

Now, the Gwinnett Hospital System has merged with Northside Hospital. Duluth people are very pleased with the new name of the old hospital - Northside Gwinnett Joan Glancy. This name pays tribute to its history of helping improve the lives of Gwinnett County residents for 75 years. Now, with this new partnership, it is on track to continue this mission for many years to come.

OPENING CEREMONY

After the Parade ends on Saturday, grab a bite to eat and get a good spot in front of the Festival Center to enjoy our Opening Ceremony. Anjelica Hale (first runner up in 2017's America's Got Talent competition show) will sing the National Anthem and another song to kick off the event honoring our sponsors and local dignitaries.

WORSHIP ON THE GREEN

Join us for a community worship service, "Worship on the Town Green" at 10 a.m. Sunday morning (after the Donut Dash 5K). Duluth First United Methodist Church's Contemporary Worship Praise Team: Rev. Terry Tippens, Senior Pastor, and Rev. David Burchett, Director of Youth Ministries, will lead the worship. Next year, the church (whose original building stood where City Hall is today) celebrates its 150th Anniversary.

GETTING HELP OR FIRST AID

If you need help while you are visiting the Festival or if you lose an item, stop by our revamped Information, Lost, & Found booth with the Duluth Fall Festival logo (located on Main Street). You can also ask any volunteer for assistance.

Although we hope that you don't need it, the Duluth Fall Festival probably has the best First-Aid station of any Arts & Crafts festival. The station (located near the railroad tracks) is staffed by Registered Nurses furnished by Northside Hospital Duluth and includes the Concussion Care-A-Van for urgent care.

Generally, first-aid matters consist of bee stings and minor injuries. For major emergencies, ambulances are within calling distance to quickly transport patients to the Duluth hospital. Police escorts are also on hand to assist.

Cheryl MacMillan, head of nursing at Northside Duluth chairs this important committee. We appreciate Cheryl, the nurses, and Northside Hospital Duluth for providing this invaluable service.

ABOUT THE FESTIVAL T-SHIRT AND CONCERT

Each year, the Festival T-shirt color is a surprise. Due to the T-shirt's popularity, many volunteers and sponsors alike join the Festival ranks just to get a shirt. For the first few years, Tom Martin, then of Citizen's Bank, donated all of the volunteer T-shirts. This year's shirt was unveiled at the Taste of Duluth on September 19th at the Payne-Corley House.

FOOD

Choose from more than 30 food vendors to satisfy your wildest cravings. New treats pork skins and Thai spring rolls join old favorites such as corndogs, fried 'gator, smoothies, gyros and BBQ. Wash it down with lemonade, ice cream floats or Boba tea. The Fall Festival's own concession stand features hotdogs and our famous "Big Pickle." Finish your day off with a sweet dessert like funnel cake, kettle corn, snow cones or ice cream floats. Come hungry and leave happy!

Arts & Crafts

Get your holiday shopping done early this year from our selection of 250 artists and crafts booths. Vendors offer all kinds of hand-made and hand-decorated merchandise, including: paintings, photographs, wood crafts, pottery, glassware, furniture, floral arrangements, baskets, candles, soap, jewelry, clothing (for adults, children, dolls and dogs!) and more.

Carnival

A variety of amusements can be found at the family-friendly Forever Young Amusements Carnival (Main Street, across from City Hall). New rides include Aladdin and Jump Cycles.

With a history of more than 50 years in the amusement industry, Forever Young operates throughout Georgia, Tennessee and Kentucky 30 weeks a year, and have 22 major rides.

Man's Corner

Man's Corner will be a big part of the Festival this year, as this is the 10th Anniversary of that popular spot. Ten years ago Greg Pritchard came up with the idea of having a place in the Festival for men - no lace! He took the land next to City Hall which wasn't being used by the Festival because of the hilly grade and made it work! Since then this has been one of the most popular areas. You will find many men watching football in the large tent while their families are off enjoying the rest of the Festival.

Exhibitors this year will include Top Golf, Road Atlanta, Make It Loud

Websites, Duluth Racquet Club, Dish Network, Direct TV, Bass Pro Shops, and others. Walter Reeves, the Georgia Gardener, will be personally appearing between 11:30 and 2:30 on Saturday and much more! See you in Man's Corner for its 10th Anniversary at the Duluth Fall Festival!

Duluth Depot

Festival-goers can purchase personalized souvenir T-shirts, baseball caps, tote bags, stainless steel tumblers, and many other items at the Festival's new Duluth Depot. If you're feeling lucky, purchase raffle tickets for prizes such as a 55" Smart TV, YETI cooler, wine basket with restaurant certificates, spa basket, tickets to sporting events and more.

More Than Just a Festival

by Beth Hoffman

You may have noticed the Duluth Fall Festival's new tagline "More Than Just a Festival." We adopted this phrase because our volunteer activities and accomplishments run year 'round. By now, you are probably familiar with the large fall concert and the huge arts and crafts event that we host annually in September, but you might not know the other things that the Festival does.

This spring, the Festival donated $75,000 to the City of Duluth to enhance the entertainment that we have all enjoyed all summer.

During holiday season, the Festival sponsors the annual tree lighting—illuminating the two giant Christmas trees and decor (purchased by the Festival) that adorns the Town Green and Parsons Alley.

Taylor Park (next to City Hall) and Parsons Alley were joint ventures with the City. The DFF erected the Continental Divide Marker on the Town Green and commissioned the mosaic outside Dreamland BBQ, as well other art objects. Our biggest accomplishment was building the Duluth Festival Center and stage that hosts countless events.

The Festival supports the City in events, special projects, continued beautification and all sorts of improvements. For example, the Festival has pledged $250,000 for the proposed train viewing platform to be built near the new library and have already donated $65,000 for its design. All total, the Festival has donated more than $3 million to Downtown Duluth.

But, even more important than these physical things, the Festival develops life-long friendships among its members. At its core, this volunteer organization builds our great community through monthly meetings and nights out, sponsor events, a Summer Rally, a volunteer Christmas party and numerous planning meetings for our 55 separate committees. Come join us!

More From the Festival

NORTHSIDE HOSPITAL DULUTH

Northside Hospital Duluth traces its roots to a single community hospital. And while we're known for our legacy of care and compassion, today, we're one of the leading hospitals in Atlanta. What was once thought to be unachievable, we do daily.

We're setting the pace of modern medicine. From our groundbreaking Concussion Institute to our innovative use of robotic surgery, we're pushing the boundaries of technology and setting the pace of health care throughout Georgia.
